I was saddened to learn of the untimely death of an old friend. Susan and I rode to work together from Trotwood to Mead most every day and had many memorable times in the car. I was with her when she and Bob were courting . . . and eventually married. What a fine pair you made. She was a fine lady and friend as well as a good wife and mom. In our sorrow; let us remember Susan as someone who took joy in life. She will be missed by so many. Lovingly, Barbara Trissel Fletcher Scott

I enjoyed many years of working with Susan and we really got to know each other when we shared rides to MDC from Trotwood. She always made the ride fun and we had lots of laughs together. One particular night we were running real late due to an "after work" event. I can still remember her telling me about Bob waiting in the garage for her when she got home. This was after she had dropped me off and my "Bob" was waiting anxiously at the front door. My sympathy to Susan's family.

Bob and family, I worked with Susan at LN for many years. My best memories were Monday mornings when we would hear about her weekend camping trips and family outings. We shared a mutual love of gardening so the summer included a "what's flowering in the garden" discussion. If Susan was ever in a bad mood we never knew it. However, if things weren't going well a few select words could also be heard! I know you will all miss her and the light she brought to your family.

I always think of Aunt Susan when I see wildflowers on the side of the road! I always loved for her to walk me a round to see all the flowers she planted and when she would see any little living thing she would talk to it in a fun squeaky voice! (Even when she saw Bob) We will miss her fun stories, her fun voices, her contagious laugh and most of all her big hugs!

I worked with Susan quite a few years at LexisNexis. There was never a dull moment when she was nearby. She was the sweetest person to be around and to work with. When she learned we were building a new home, she opened her garden up to my husband and me and allowed us to take any of her plants we wanted for our yard. Those flowers still flourish and come back every year. Our condolences and deepest sympathy to you and your family. Shawn Foley
