Mary Jane was a wonderful sister-in law. She treated everyone with love and respect. We will never forget the times she would make us laugh and sometimes cry. We love you Mary Jane.

Aunt Mary Jane, I remember you fondly and the fun times I had with you while growing up. You gave me my first nickname (Mark Spark), played the piano in the church and always received the family with warmth and love, not to mention your great food and wit! Rest in peace, as the angels have already come and escorted you to your eternal home . . .

Ms. Mary was one of the strongest women I've ever known. Knew her when I was a child and reconnected with her just a few years ago. She now has joined the many, many friends that have been waiting for her arrival on the other side. She has reached the peace and joy that she so greatly deserves. Till we meet again...

Aunt Mary was a big influence in my life growing up. My mom (Adrienne) was her sister and I have wonderful memories of great family get together parties and activities, whether it be at Mary's home in Lebanon, ours in Springboro or at Blue Shin (the Powell family farm in Morrow). We never, ever turned down an opportunity to eat like pigs and feast on our aunts wonderful meals. I'd like to think that I have followed somewhat in their footsteps by being a pretty good cook myself. I am so grateful for those memories and I know my mom and aunt Betty (another of her sisters) were waiting at the pearly gates with open arms and smiles of happiness to see her again. Rest in Peace Aunt Mary, we loved you.
