Cousin Leon and his mother Aunt Stella spent a lot of time at our house in Dayton with our family . Aunt Stella and mom would sit up all night laughing and telling funny stories about growing up in Kentucky. Leon and all us cousins would listen to the stories and laugh until we cried sometimes. I enjoyed the cards Leon sent each year talking about his home and how his year had been and about cousin Sharon taking good care of him. I missed my card this year. I will miss him.
