Ronald R. Borgerding

NOV 27, 1934 - NOV 8, 2020

BORGERDING, Ronald R., age 85, of Centerville and formerly of Waynesville, passed away Sunday, November 8, 2020 at St. Leonard, Centerville.

Ronald graduated from Chaminade Julianne High School in Dayton.

Family oriented and quiet, Ronald had a spry sense of humor. Extremely hard working, he was very handy and built his own home several years ago. Among many things, he will be remembered for how much he loved the holidays and getting his family together. In his later years, the weekly breakfast dates he enjoyed with his family at St. Leonard were always enjoyable.

He was preceded in death by his wife Belle in 2017; his parents Joseph and Marie Borgerding; four brothers Robert, Fritz, Dick, and Charlie Borgerding; and his sister Virginia Sanchez. He is survived by his daughter Karen (Paul) Davis; four sons Michael (Anne), Ted (Becky), Martin (Danesa), and Scot (Sandy) Borgerding; nine grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; and one brother Ben (Sue) Borgerding.

Private services. Stubbs-Conner Funeral Home in Waynesville is serving the family. Condolences at www.stubbsconner.com.

My husband Rodger and I are so very sorry to hear of Ron's passing. I am Max Hofferbert's first cousin. My aunt Marie was married to Mike. Over the years we visited at Max and Esther's home with Belle. She and I kept in touch with family news. Your father was a very gifted builder as many of the family past were and probably many of the generations to come. Belle was very proud of each of you and loved you very much as did Ron. Please keep in touch. Marie Gaskill Reedy, Fairborn, Ohio.

I remember your dad fondly, particularly at band picnics. I know you will miss him so much. Know that you were there for him, attentive to him, and helped keep him alive and well as long as possible with your happy family times. Keep those great memories close. My prayers are with you.
