LeeAnn was a 2002 graduate of Lebanon High School. She was currently employed for the Warren County Building Department, with over 15 years of dedication to the county.

Giving, funny, and family oriented, LeeAnn had a bubbly personality and was always eager to please others. She greatly enjoyed crocheting, rooting on her beloved Cincinnati Bengals, and spending time with family and friends. She is survived by her parents Edward and Cheryl Bussell; grandma Minnie Bussell; sister Natalie (Jon) Collins; brother Scott (Amanda) Bussell; nieces and nephew Jonathan Collins; Emma Collins, Lainey Collins, and Ellie Bussell; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Funeral services will be held 12:30 PM Thursday, December 10 at the New Freedom Church in Lebanon. Burial will be in Lebanon Cemetery. The family will receive friends 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM Thursday at New Freedom Church. Stubbs-Conner Funeral Home in Waynesville is serving the family.

I got to know LeeAnn over the years as we both worked at the County. She would stop by and chat with me in the evenings when I would have to work late. Her concern was so touching because she genuinely cared and wanted to make sure the people around her were okay. I will miss her smile, contagious laughter, and absolutely beautiful soul. Lifting you all up in prayer. Deborah Grubb

Leeann, would often call me on her break from work. She would ask my opinion about something and I was always honest and frank. Shd would always say, "yea that's what my mom said". I would say, well we are sisters and moms that love you". She would often make you laugh and she had an infectious laugh I would love to hear one more time. She's in Heaven with Grandma and Grandpa and Grandpa Walter making them laugh. We will miss her but will see her again one day. Love you Leeann, Aunt Char

Years ago LeeAnn was in to making potholders. At a family gathering she gave me a purple and white one that is about 3inches square. I keep it by my gas fireplace key and use it to close the flue on my fireplace every time it is used. Consequently, I think of LeeAnn often and cherish her thoughtfulness. She was such a sweet soul and will be missed by many. Jerri Shotwell
