Ray Lamb

NOV 5, 1935 - JUL 18, 2021

LAMB, Ray, age 85, a proud citizen of Corwin, passed away Sunday, July 18, 2021, at his residence with family by his side. He was born November 5, 1935, to Lewis and Mary Lamb in Corwin.

Ray worked 53 years hauling water under the name of Ray Lamb Water Service and later by Clearwater Hauling. He loved his work and he took great pride in the relationships and social life that came along with it. He was a faithful member and participant of the Corwin Pentecostal Church for most of his life. He served as a Wayne Township Trustee for 12 years and 14 years on the Village of Corwin Council, whereby a proclamation was made in 2013 for his devotion and passion to his beloved Corwin, designating June 8 of that year, Ray Lamb Day. Additionally and in appreciation of assisting the fire department with water during fires, he was named an honorary member of the Wayne Township Fire Department.

Caring, loving, supportive, and outgoing, Ray loved people, and people loved Ray. Known for his signature wave, he was friendly to everyone, regardless of whether he was driving his water truck or visiting people in the community. He was co-founder and major supporter of the Corwin Tractor Show, which he always looked forward to each year. He appreciated and collected tractors, both full-size antique and toy versions. When his kids were younger, he enjoyed family camping trips to Lake Cumberland, but he always insisted on getting back to Corwin for work and church. In addition and during the '70s, he was labeled the #1 fan of the basketball team at Waynesville High School, even to the point of having his own place to stand on the court during games. He also enjoyed the tradition of getting together with family during the Lewis and Mary Lamb Christmas reunions. Among many things, he will be remembered for his enjoyment of peppering up a room by singing spirited and uplifting songs, which he did often for any occasion.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Freda, almost to the minute on the same day last year; his parents; three brothers Earl, Boyd, and Eddie Lamb; and seven sisters Orlene Estes, Stella Preston, Marie Isaacs, Bessie Moore Fouch, Bernice Lamb, Louise Brixey, and Maxine Lamb. He is survived by his daughter Tami (Jim) Linville; son Craig Lamb; three grandchildren Renee

Have not had time to read through all the tributes to Ray and I have been away from Waynesville for a long time but I will always remember his visits out home and sometimes the rare hauling of water out to both of the farms throughout my growing up years. He was a favorite of my parents. What I remember most is after April 3, 1974, he came out to the house and told dad he had spent that night and many days beyond hauling water up to Xenia for those devastated people and the hospital. He said he was never so scared (up to that time, at least!) as when he was driving up US 42 that night and early April 4 and saw many more funnel clouds dancing over his truck and along his route. Luckily, they stayed as funnel clouds so he just kept going up to where he was needed and then back to Waynesville to load up again. How many trips, I do not remember. Quite a great man in so many ways. Bless you, dear Cousin! Sandy Surface

I stand amazed how God brings folks such as Ray&Freda into ones life and how truly thankful and grateful to God to be associated with such ICONS and Godly pillars in the community. Forever my memory of Ray singing and playing the cymbals with my father Ellis Mallicoat Jr. What a sound they could bring to a church service. Ray was such a good friend to my father. Thank you Ray for being so kind, humble and a grand of a Godly Christian Man. Never to be forgotten. Rob Mallicoat

Such a kind and sweet person. Never met a stranger. Loved the Lord, his family, and his community. Always spoke proudly of being from Corwin, Ohio!! Many fond memories of Ray hauling water to families, the "Wave" when he passed you on the road, standing in his corner of the gym supporting the basketball teams, assisting the Wayne Twp Fire Department and his support of law enforcement, especially the Warren County Sheriffs Office. A true pillar of Our community. Sad to realize many of the new residents in the area may not realize the many things he did over the years. He will be missed. Prayers for the family.
