Alma Cook

JAN 8, 1930 - OCT 7, 2022

COOK, Alma, age 92, of Waynesville, passed away Friday, October 7, 2022.

A faithful Christian devoted to God, Alma was a member of Lighthouse Harbor Free Pentecostal Church in Lebanon.

Loving, caring, funny, helpful, and independent, Alma had a giving heart and loved to show her love to family and friends. She greatly enjoyed sewing and making blankets to give away as gifts. In addition, after attending school to learn cake decorating, she became a bit of a cake artist and loved making cakes to give away.

She became known, especially by family, for being an excellent cook. Her homemade country dinners, chocolate pies, apple butter, and sugar cookies will never be forgotten as some of her best. Alma became skilled at playing a lap steel guitar and played in church for over 60 years. She became known for playing the guitar and continued to take pride in playing even when she needed assistance getting up on the stage at church.

It became a tradition while the kids were growing up for Alma, Acie, and the kids to travel to Wilmington Beach in North Carolina every summer for vacation. They always stopped to have picnic lunches along the way, which along with all the usual beach activities, will always be remembered fondly by family. In addition, at Christmas time, Alma always celebrated with a sizeable nine-foot tree and lots of delicious food. She took pride in wrapping the presents perfectly with beautiful wrapping paper, using the paper to create beautiful bows and ribbons to make them unique. Her favorite items included country decor items, dolls, and a beloved schnauzer she named Cody. It was her family, however, that was Alma's pride and joy her entire life.
