Calvin B. Taylor

AUG 15, 1930 - NOV 5, 2024

TAYLOR, Calvin B., age 94, of South Lebanon, passed away Tuesday, November 5, 2024.

Calvin retired from Kirk & Blum Manufacturing in Cincinnati as a sheet metal operator.

During his younger days, Calvin greatly enjoyed hunting and camping. Throughout his life, however, his passion was racing cars, especially dirt track racing. He assisted a friend with working on the cars and traveling to the races for the thrill of the competition. He also enjoyed the tradition of traveling to Melbourne, Florida, in his motor home for the winter months.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Ninaree, in 1978, and more recently by his wife, Sarah Langdon Taylor in 2020. He was also preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Alla Mae Taylor, four brothers, and five sisters. He is survived by his son, Owen (Carol) Taylor; three step daughters, Phyllis Roberts-Smith (Scott), Vickie (Rob) Powell, and Terri Thuney; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Funeral services will be held 11:30 AM Friday, November 8 at Full Gospel Church of God in Lebanon. Burial will be in Fellowship Cemetery in Union Township. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service Friday at the church. Craig Roberts will be officiating the services. Stubbs-Conner Funeral Home in Waynesville is serving the family. Scott Mishler lit a candle in honor of Calvin.

Dear Calvin's Family, My love, prayers, sympathy and compassion are with you all! I dearly love Calvin and will miss him greatly. As his chaplain, I was very blessed by his loving, humble, Christlike spirit every time that I visited him. He always received my encouragement and prayers with a loving smile. I know that he now has a great Reward in the presence of our loving, faithful Lord & Savior Jesus Christ for all of eternity. Thank you for being a loving and very special family! Love & prayers in Christ, Scott Mishler ViaQuest Hospice Chaplain & Bereavement Coordinator
