21 November 2007 Dear Joanie & family, We are so sorry about Jim. He was such a nice guy and we always enjoyed seeing all of the kids play and grow up in the plat. In the few times we saw him in the last few years, he was always s very nice young man. You are all in our thoughts and prayers at this sad time. With deepest sympathy, Bill and Marilee Baird Centerville, Ohio##imported-begin##Bill & Marilee Baird##imported-end##

Linda + family: Although I only met you and Jim a few times, you struck me as the quintessential all-American family...a very pleasant, very likable couple.I sold your Springboro home to its new owner at an open house. I realize this is a very private time for you, but I wanted to express my deepest sadness at Jim's passing. I wish you and your family peace and comfort.##imported-begin##Sue Kees##imported-end##

The funeral service for Jim was very inspirational. It was great hearing all the great stories about Jim and how much he did for so many. He was, indeed, a wonderful human being and his illness took his young life.Our sincere sympathy goes out to you, Linda, your sons and all the family. Jim will be truly missed.Just remember the good times and have faith that Jim is at peace now in a better place. Take care of yourself now.##imported-begin##Bill and Barb Haws##imported-end##

Linda, Pat and Chris, Our sincerest sympathies to your family. We will always remember Jim as a very supportive man and great friend of the high school cross country and track runners. Jim was so gracious in his praise and support for Scott and that meant a lot to us. We pray for Jim and you all in this tough time in your lives but know we thought very highly of Jim and respected him as a friend. Scott asked me to tell you that he is very saddened for your loss and "Mr Godfrey was a very inspiring man to me as an individual which I appreciated very much. He took the time and effort to always have an encouraging word of support and always be positive." Again our very sincere sympathy. God bless. The Hamiltons
