To All The Family--I was so saddened to read of your mother's passing, and I'm so sorry to be so late with my condolences. I let time slip away, but you were always in my thoughts in prayers. I remember her wonderful articles in the Western Star, and especially of growing up and knowing everyone at the house on the corner. As Jane Kenrick wrote, she was a very important part of my growing up. Please accept my deepest sympathy, as I know how difficult and challenging it is to lose a parent.##imported-begin##Neil Williams##imported-end##

To Janet's Family;I worked with your mom at the western star from 1975 until 1986 -- she was a friend, a mentor, a co-conspirator -- a wit and wisdom you could always rely on.She fretted about each of you in turn, sometimes several of you at one time.She was always there for me, and we laughed, worked and commiserated together.I'm sorry we lost touch - I've thought of her often over the intervening years.She was special. I was fortunate to know her.My best to you all.cathy##imported-begin##Cathy Nolte##imported-end##

The Ralph and Frances branch of the Harlan Whitacre family send sincere condolences on the loss of our cousin Janet. We will ever remember Janet's words at the reunion and in the Western Star. All of us treasured her Mother Tongue columns and saved so many. Grandma sent them to Aunt Jean in Indiana, and Mom sent them to New York state and Michigan to my sisters there. You are in our thoughts.##imported-begin##Lucretia Mershon##imported-end##

Debbie, Please accept our sincerest condolences on the death of your mother. We appreciate how close you were to her and how you so diligently pursued just compensation for her relative to the illness and death of your father in scientific service to the nation. Many others also have and will continue to benefit from your efforts. No doubt the existence of such a fine daughter is a very much a tribute to her. Our deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Don and Judy Sullenger##imported-end##

Dear David, Jim, Debbie, and "Boo", It was with great sadness that I learned of your mother's passing--and with great joy that I remember her. She was an important part of my growing up years and very important to my mother. The word friend means Janet Goode. With loving sympathy, Jane Kenrick Vermillion and family##imported-begin##Jane Kenrick Vermillion##imported-end##
