Gary was my Uncle. A truth be told, my favorite. He was always there for me and whoever else that needed a helping hand. He was always there for you. And he would never turn his back on anyone. He was the greatest uncle anyone could ever ask for. It still hurts to think about you and the way you were in my life so much. But I will keep you in my mind and I will never let the memories go. I have finally realized that you are in a better place now. And even though I'm still upset that God took you away from me and my family, I will have to believe that it was the best for you. But you will always be in my heart, mind and soul no matter what. It's still hard to try and say goodbye especially when it comes to this. And I know your shining down on me from heaven, and I know that eventually we will be together again one sweet day. Till that day. I love you Uncle Gary.##imported-begin##Danielle Randolph##imported-end##
