Dear Powell Miller Family, I am so very sorry. I am so very sad, as well. I've known your mom/sister/daughter since kindergarten. Her sense of humor was one of her greatest delights. I have been fortunate enough to stay in touch with her off and on through all these years and that sense of humor managed to stay with her. I loved her when she was "little" and I loved her when she got "big". I will miss her, as I know all of you will. She is in Heaven, watching over things now. Please look to each other for support and reach out as needed. She's a great woman. You are lucky to have had such a wonderful person in your life. Peace and Blessings to you all. Andrew, We are so sorry to hear about your mom. Are thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of pain. If you need anything let us know. Feel free to bring Mya up and let her play with the kids. Once again, we are so very sorry. Just remember she is in a better place now and not suffering anymore. Keep your head up and keep smiling for your mom. God bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Chuck and Heather Linville##imported-end##
