I loved making sales calls on the insurance office and visiting with Ann. She was always delightful to talk to and so welcoming. I know your hearts are broken. I'm so sorry for your loss. Lovingly, Suzie Salas##imported-begin##Suzie Salas##imported-end##

I remember fun times with Ann when she would come visit me on the farm on Springboro Pike and we would ride horses. I have a picture of the two of us on horses when were about age 11. My aunt Wilma Collins Myers used to help at her parent's big beautiful home. Although I have not see Ann since high school, I have such fond memories. My sincere sympathy to all her family.

My sincerest condolences go out to you and your family. Ann was a wonderful person who loved to make people laugh. We will miss her tremulously at Swartz Mulch. She was always the highlight of our day when she would grace us with her presents. She will be missed greatly by all. ##imported-begin## Clara Rogers ##imported-end##
