So sorry to hear of Uncle Jim's passing. Know that he was loved and appreciated by family and friends. I still remember a long time ago, before we moved to Florida when we all made fake mustaches and Uncle Jim had the only real one. We were all the "Frito Bandito" I also remember the trip that Uncle Jim, Jimmy, Nikki, and Bobbi made to Florida in the "camper". And of course my Mom has many stories of her younger brother and his antics that she shared with us over the years. I think that he was like the "Dennis the Menace" of the family, loved by all, but wondering what he was gonna get into next. I send my love and prayers to all of Uncle Jim's Family, he left a very strong legacy here on Earth. Love, Marianne##imported-begin##Marianne Susco McMillin##imported-end##

Dorothy, Jim, Nickie, Bobbi and families:I was very sorry to hear of Uncle Jim's recent passing.I don't think that I'll ever forget the time when I had just finished telling my parents that I was sure that there was no Santa Claus, when I opened the door and their was Santa (Uncle Jim) bearing gifts for all of us!May your memories comfort you in this time of sorrow and bring a smile to your faces; a sure sign that Uncle Jim's spirit remains among us.Rest in peace, Uncle Jim.Love, Lisa Williams McCann and Barry McCann, Fort Collins, CO##imported-begin##Lisa Williams McCann##imported-end##
