Hello Cindy, Lynn, Mary & Family, I was saddened when my sister told me Janice had left this old world. She is now reunited with James and her other loved ones, including my parents. Be comforted to know that one day you will do the same and live eternally with them...never departing again. May the God of peace garrison up your hearts and mind comforting you as only He can do. With love, Alice Blair & Family##imported-begin##Alice Blair##imported-end##

Mary and family we give our condolences today as we just learned of Janice's passing. Janice was a very spirited woman who we enjoyed talking with over family get together's. My mom enjoyed her as well. The one thing that we could see in Janice was she enjoyed life to the fullest. Again, we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Michael & Alice Kelly##imported-end##

Mary - I was sorry to learn of your mother's passing. It is so hard when the family circle loses a link. And mom's are so special. My mother died less than a year ago and I miss her greatly. If ever you want to talk, please be in touch. Peace to you and your family.##imported-begin##Nancy Walther##imported-end##

Hello Mary,I read your mother's obituary in the paper today. I'm so sorry for your loss. I will never forget how your mom and dad were so very nice to me; I really liked them. (I also really miss those shucky beans!) Much has happened over these many years. I've been in ministry since 1989, pastoring at Grace Christian Center in Beavercreek since Feb. 1999. Please tell Mark 'Hi'(I still have a picture of him and me standing by his gold Camaro). Is he still teaching in West Carrollton? I will be praying for you and your family. (If either of you have time, send me an email and catch me up on the past 30 years.) May God's peace and presence fill your lives and home, Jim##imported-begin##Jim Martin##imported-end##

Some of my fondest memories as a child were spending summers with my Aunt Janice. She was a great lady and even though I didn't see her very often, I will miss her. God is in the business of mending broken hearts. My request is going up today for Bob, Lynn and Mary Anna and all of Janice's family.##imported-begin##Sherylene Runyon##imported-end##
