Wenn Neptun sein Ffcllhorn ausschfcttet .23. Oktober 2011. Wir fehran zum Tauchplatz Malcolm bei recht bewegter See. In etwa 20 Meter Tiefe begrfcst uns eine grosse Schildkrf6te, die mit Weichkorallenfressen besche4ftigt ist und bei ihrem Aufstieg wird sie von einer schf6nen Gruppe Fledermausfische begleitet. Ein grosser Napoleon beobachtet uns und beachtliche Schwe4rme von Ffcsilieren ziehen auf und abwe4rts vor einer schf6n bewachsenen Wand.Und dann haben wir fast vergessen zu atmen. Aus der Tiefe zieht ein kreisrunder Koloss auf, beinahe unbeweglich und ffer uns doch zu schnell um ihm zu folgen. Ich habe meinen ersten Mondfisch gesehen und erst noch ein riesengrosses Exemplar. Wir gucken einander an und wir wissen sofort, es hat alle gleich beeindruckt und wir sind nicht nur wegen dem Atemregler sprachlos. Wir machen den Tauchgang mehr oder weniger konzentriert fertig und auf dem Schiff haben wir unglaublich viel zu erze4hlen und zu fragen. Als dann noch ein Dugong neben dem Schiff auftaucht und Luft holt und uns eine Schule Delpfine ein Stfck auf dem Heimweg begleitet, war es dann bald des Guten zuviel ffer einen einzigen Tauchgang. Einer von vielen unvergesslichen Tauchge4ngen auf dieser Reise.##imported-begin##Shivani##imported-end##

Ed & Family,I'm so sorry for your loss. Patty was a beautiful person, both inside & out. I'm so glad that she came into my life. It was a real pleasure to work with her. She was always so upbeat & kind to everyone. We can all count our blessings to have had someone in our lives such as her. I pray that you & the family will find peace, as I know that she has in Heaven. With Sympathy,Barb Fields##imported-begin##Barb Fields##imported-end##
