Alice H. Spitznogle

OCT 6, 1932 - APR 3, 2026

S PITZNOGLE, Alice H., age 93, of Waynesville, passed away on Friday, April 3, 2026, at Fairmont of Washington Township.

Alice graduated from Clay Battelle High School in West Virginia. She took great pride in being a homemaker while raising her six children. When her kids had started their own lives, she began working for Peoples Savings and Loan in Waynesville, where she officially retired, along with her dear friend, Adah Andres. She was a devoted and active member of the Waynesville United Methodist Church, where her faith guided her life each day. She found great joy in serving through her church, participating in the Chancel choir, the bell choir, and Bible studies. As a dedicated member of the United Methodist Women's group, she loved sewing school bags, baking and preparing for fundraisers, and taking part in mission work, including a memorable trip to the McCurdy School in New Mexico.

Alice was a devoted Christian whose faith was the foundation of her life. She prayed daily and lived her beliefs through her kindness, generosity, and service to others. She was an avid quilter and seamstress, lovingly creating quilts for her children and grandchildren that will be treasured for generations. She enjoyed traveling with her siblings and children, often exploring new places together and making lasting memories. Alice cherished her many family reunions and truly valued any time spent surrounded by her loved ones. She also had a fondness for sending and receiving greeting cards, a reflection of her appreciation for meaningful relationships. Alice will be remembered for her unwavering faith, her servant's heart, and the love and care she poured into her family and community.

Alice was preceded in death by her loving husband of 53 years, Roy "Buck" Spitznogle, in 2004; her parents, Dwight (Ruby) Hall and Pearl Hall; her three brothers, David Hall, Edgar Hall, and Gary Hall; and her sister, Mary Louise Howard. She is survived by her two brothers, Melvin Hall and Ronnie Hall; her two sons, Keith (Marilyn) Spitznogle of Savannah, GA, and Dale (Melissa) Spitznogle of Waynesville, OH; her four daughters, Joyce (Phil) Temsey of Canton, OH, Pat (Tim)

Brenda your mom will always hold a special place in my heart as a dear friend and favorite client. She came into my life around the time I lost my grandmother and filled a bit of that hole with love, kindness and friendship. Fridays at noon always belonged to her alone. She always called herself my "old" friend. I will always remember her fondly. So sorry for your loss. Prayers for comfort and peace during this time. Toni
