Aunt Jean was such a great person. She was also a fighter. She will always be remembered by her friends and family as a person who was loving and caring. My wife Lauren had the pleasure of meeting my Aunt Jean and I really hoped that she would have been able to meet our son Matthew. However, Aunt Jean was also a person of great faith. She was a devout Catholic. Knowing that, I know she is going to be Matthew's guardian angel. There is no doubt in my mind Aunt Jean is enjoying being reunited with her mom and dad, and other loved one's in heaven. She will be a guardian angel to all of us. I'm thankful, and a better person because my Aunt Jean was a part of my life. I love you Aunt Jean.-Love, Ryan
