“ Just the other day I watched and prayed Cecil wouldn't fall off a ladder he was climbing in the rain. I wish I hadn't let the rain keep me from walking over and visiting with him that day. We just take for granted that our next breath will come, that our loved ones will always be there, that they surely know just how much we love and appreciate them, until we suffer so great a loss. So my love, prayers and tears are with you all as you say goodbye . . . for now. But I just can't help but imagine that Cecil and my dad are doing something silly and fun up there like hulling walnuts by feeding them under a spinning car wheel that's jacked up off the ground at just the right height and laughing each time the walnut shot out and hit the board behind the wheel like rock. I will cherish the memories.

Love,

Donna Sue (Sturgill) Cole

“ Dear Shirley, Tim, Kim and families,
Our condolences to all of you for your loss. We first met Cecil in July at the time of Katy and Jarod's wedding and enjoyed our conversations with him. He was a pleasure to be around, always smiling and friendly to everyone. The love he had for Shirley and his family was evident, and he spoke with special pride about each of his grandchildren. We will remember all the fun he had at wedding--a day he enjoyed beyond measure. Unfortunately, we cannot be with you at this time, but know that you are in our thoughts. Nancy
