During his younger days, he enjoyed boating and camping. Some of his favorite times were taking his kids out on the boat at Caesar Creek Lake. Among many things, he will be remembered for how much he enjoyed traveling, especially the many trips to Orlando in Florida and the big city sights in New York City.

“ Grandpa Dave will be greatly missed; he was the very best grandfather, father, father-in-law, and husband. I thank him for his past military service to the United States of America. He was the foundation for this family - a man who was strongly independent, but who also displayed boundless amounts of care, patience, and consideration for others. His character will be an enduring example and legacy for any of us who had the privilege of knowing him. Rest In Peace.
