

Gwendolyn T. Miller

August 8, 1929 - March 18, 2020

MILLER, Gwendolyn T., age 90, of Waynesville, passed away Wednesday, March 18, 2020 at Elmcroft Assisted Living in Xenia.

Gwendolyn graduated from Wheelersburg High School in the class of '47. After graduation, she served for several years as a candy striper in a local hospital. She married Paul Miller in '49, and devoted herself to being a wife, mother and then grandmother. In the '80's, Gwen and Paul moved to Georgia where Gwen volunteered at Augusta Humana Hospital where her faith in God and her love of people made her very helpful to those in crisis. In the '90's, Paul and Gwen moved back to Ohio, living in Waynesville until Paul's passing in 2009.

Paul and Gwen were members of Crossview Christian Church (formerly Ferry Church of Christ) in Waynesville. Gwen taught Sunday School, was in charge of the nursery, sang in the choir, hosted many youth group events, and was a great encourager to anyone in need.

She lived her life for God, for family, and to care for others. She loved reading Scripture and desired to see her children and grandchildren following in her footsteps. Circled in her Bible was Psalm 71:18, "Even when I am old and gray, do not abandon me, O God. Let me live to tell the people of this age what your strength has accomplished, to tell about your power to all who will come."

Gwen was preceded in death by Paul in 2009, grandson Brian Atkins, great grandson Caden Paul Welch, her parents Henry and Mabel Hansgen, and her brother Henry Hansgen Jr. She is survived by her sister Dorothy Tuller; by three daughters, Sue (Tony) Jones, Judy Stevens, Patti (Chuck) Faber; by five grandchildren, Michelle (John) Trame, Tanya (Brandon) Welch, Terry (Ashley) Stevens, Melissa (Matt) Sleasman, and Ryan (Alison) Faber; and by eight great grandchildren, Tristen, Myah, Asher, Zane, Kayla, Brayden, Anna, and Colton.

Private family graveside services, Chuck Faber officiating. Burial will be in Miami Cemetery, Corwin. Stubbs-Conner Funeral Home in Waynesville is serving the family. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice of the Miami Valley. Condolences at www.stubbsconner.com.

“ I will miss her sweet voice and smile, her kind heart, her loving energy and her laugh. She was a rock in my life and I would not be the person I am today had she not been there for me - my angel on earth, Grandma. She was loved by anyone who knew her - I hope she is holding the love of her life, Paul in the heavens. I love you, Grandma. Michelle

“ Aunt Gwenie was the best aunt ever. As kids we visited with Uncle Paul, Sue, Judy, and Patti several times a month. She talked to her sister (my mother) on the phone almost daily. She encouraged her parents in their old age and her grandchildren in their youth. She and Uncle Paul were so full of life and adventure. Laughter and fun were always present when we all got together. Often we'd laugh until we were silly. We played games, made homemade ice cream, and sang songs. She loved her family and the Lord every day of her life. I believe she is in Heaven and someday I will see her again in her fullness. Until then, I will miss her.

“ Gwen was a great aunt. She was kind considerate and always made you feel welcome in her home. We all got to hang out a lot when we were young. As we all grew older and had our own families we spread out. I will miss knowing that she is no longer with us on this earth. But I rejoice knowing she has gone to be with the Lord and others family members who have left us. I thank God for her being in my life as much as she was. I know Sue, Judy And Patty will miss her very much, but I'm sure they take comfort in knowing she is with the Lord. Thank you God for blessing us with her time on earth.

Love from your cousin Brian

“ Our heart felt joy for Mrs Miller's homecoming and grief for the family. Your parents were a light in the darkness for the family at Ferry and the community. Like many of their group at Ferry, they loved the Lord Jesus. From the Joe and Gladys Mc Fadden family
