

Judy K. Newton

September 11, 1952 - July 21, 2021

NEWTON, Judy K., age 68, of Waynesville, passed away Wednesday, July 21, 2021, at her residence. Judy was born September 11, 1952 to Donald and Betty Patterson in Greenville.

Judy graduated from Brookville High School, class of '70 and attended Sinclair Community College, earning an Associate's degree in accounting in '72. She retired as a librarian from Washington-Centerville Public Library in 2017 after more than 20 years of service. She was a member of the Centerville Grace Church and volunteered many hours to the Women's Center in Kettering.

Loyal, kind, devoted, thoughtful, with a great sense of humor, Judy had a gift for hospitality. She was always thinking of others and tried to make everyone feel very comfortable. In her spare time, she enjoyed sewing and crocheting clothes and baby blankets. She also loved to read a wide variety of genres, especially feel-good fiction. She was very active and appreciated a good hike or bike ride, particularly around Caesar's Creek Lake and Sugarcreek Preserve. As an avid baker, she thought of baking as an art form and prepared everything from cupcakes, chocolate chip cookies, Christmas cookies, and pies with intricate lattice work. Many times her baked good items would be present at church functions and other community volunteer events. Among many things, she will be remembered for how much she loved her grandchildren and taking trips to Florida. For many years, it became tradition to travel to Siesta Key with family, which included extended family members, specifically with the goal to achieve some rest and relaxation.

She was preceded in death by her father Donald Patterson. She is survived by her husband of 47 years, Jim; one daughter Melissa (Michael) Honebrink; two grandchildren Nolan & Emslea; her mother Betty Patterson; two brothers Gary (Brenda) Patterson and Joe (Stacy) Patterson; and two sisters Lisa (David) Hannahan and Gail (Mark) Tweeddale.

Funeral services will be held 12 PM Monday, July 26 at Centerville Grace Church, 410 East Social Row Rd, Centerville. Dr. Greg Ryerson will be officiating. Burial will be in Miami Valley Memory Gardens in Centerville. The family will receive friends 11 AM -12 PM Monday at the church. Stubbs-Conner Funeral Home in Waynesville is serving the family. If desired contributions may be made to TWR (Trans World Radio) Ministries and/or Samaritan's Purse. Condolences at <http://www.stubbsconner.com>.

“ I began working with Judy in October 2008. She was sweet, kind, funny and had a wicked sense of humor. Loved working with her. She was so happy to retire and have time to spend with her grandchildren. I missed her before and now the whole world will miss her. What a wonderful person she was and I am so glad I had the opportunity to have her as part of my life even for a little while.

“ Judy was a terrific boss, very thoughtful and professional. She was also a good friend. In addition to the other foods mentioned, I want to add her delicious Christmas caramels!

“ Judy served as my training "buddy" when I began working at the Centerville Library in 2005 and I had the pleasure of working with her for many years. She was a lovely, classy lady--always an example of how to treat others. I wish I had known Samaritan's Purse was a favorite charity of hers; it is one of mine as well. I will make a donation in her memory. Praying for God's comfort for you at this difficult time. Sincerely, Linda Davis

“ Judy was a great aunt. She and I loved to cook and bake. During my younger years she would always make great desserts for Christmas and Thanksgiving and birthdays. She always made pies with wonderful lattice work on top. Judy knew I had a passion for baking, cake decorating, as well as cooking. On Facebook she would always "like " or comment how great my cakes or food looked. (So I guess it runs in the family). When we went to see her in hospice a few weeks ago, I told her goodbye, her last words to me and ill never forget those 2 special words "keep cooking ". And now when I cook or bake ill always think of you aunt Judy and I promise ill "keep cooking " I love you Judy. Till we cook together again

“ Judy was the kind of person who I never knew if she was teasing me or serious. I mean that in the kindest way because if I thought she was serious about something when she would tease me, a little smile would pop up in the corner of her mouth. To me, she definitely had her father's sense of humor. Always even tempered, always a smile, always a kind word and seeing the GOOD in everything. My wife Gail (her sister) and I were sitting by her a few days before she passed and were having an emotional "moment." Gail was rubbing Judy's right lower leg in a soothing fashion when Judy piped up and told her that "If you keep rubbing my leg like that, I'm gonna get a sore there." Breaking the "moment" in typical "Judy" fashion. Typical of ALL the Patterson girls, she was as pretty on the outside as she was on the inside. I always thought she looked like the brunette from the TV show "Charlie's Angels". Over the years, especially after family losses on both sides, I have found that I get closer to the Patterson family. They all have an unshakeable faith in their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ knowing that whatever tragedy comes, with Christ, they will weather the storm. All of them are TRUE Christian witnesses just by the way they live. I wish I could have spent more time with her and her family but because of geographic distance, work and life, it didn't happen...and that's OK. Because all of us will be there in eternity. Love you, Judy.
