“ This is such a beautiful tribute. I didn't know Kenny, but I know his sister Vickie and it is through her and her love for him that I learned of his life and his recent struggle with cancer. We prayed for him and his family and now know that he is at peace with God. May your sorrow lessen and be replaced with your wonderful memories.

God Bless all of you,

Lisa Ohmer

“ So so many memories and times shared! It brings a smile to my face. I will never forget when you got your new black s10 pick up truck and you was teaching me to how to drive a stick shift. That thing had no power steering and was a beast to drive! All the late night hang outs and popcorn we all shared at your house will always be cherished. Thank you for always giving me great advice, loving me and sharing your extended family with me. Kenny and Jensen will always have a guardian angel looking over them and I am grateful for God's eternal love and promise so that I will see you again one day! You will be deeply missed. Much love and many prayers for all the family who loved him. My deepest condolences for his sweet family.

“ Lo recordaré como una persona de pocas palabras, dulce y tímida para con los demás, pero muy amoroso con Rosa siempre recordaré como le brillaban los ojos al mirarla! El día de la despedida de soltero fui a ofrecerle un plato y me dijo: "no, prefiero esperar a mi esposa" Siempre le agradeceremos el amor, los consejos, el buen ejemplo que fué para Ricardo, como él mismo dice ... un gran padre!
