“ it is still hard to believe his gone... oh the fun we had a Pa's house it was like you were family even if you weren't.. some of the times i spent at Pa's house were some of my most charished. He always put a smile on our faces and a song in our heart. We would always sing im a little tea pot... lol never heard that song before Pa but use to sing it many times to my own girls.. I will miss all the fun times and wise words and to the family you were truly as blessed as they come to have such a caring father my prayers to you all... With all my love and respect Tonya Duncan
