

Robert F. Amburgy

December 30, 1931 - May 23, 2019

AMBURGY, Robert F., born Dec. 30, 1931 in Booveville, KY to Cortous and Edna (Brandenburg) Amburgy.

Bob's mother died when he 18 month's old. He lived with his dad and grandparents until age 7, upon which time his dad married Mattie Stewart. Mattie was a loving stepmother and Bob gained a sister, Jo Ann, and a brother, Wendell Ray.

He moved to Ohio with his parents when he was 10 years old. Bob graduated from high school, followed by barber college. He owned and operated barber shops in Oakwood and Lebanon for many years.

Bob married Eva Combs and they had two children, a daughter Kimberly and a son Kevin Scott. His wife passed away in 1970. In 1973, he married again to Anna Jones.

Bob earned his Realtor's license while barbering and worked as part-time Realtor, ultimately deciding to focus more on his Realtor career. He sold his barbershop to his brother and opened a real estate office in Lebanon. He went on to get his broker's license and continued in real estate for many years. In addition, he built some custom homes and commercial buildings. His love of barbering remained however, so he continued to barber part-time.

Joining the Gideon ministry in 1983, bob worked in many Gideon positions over the years. He had a passion to place God's word in motels, schools, and all other places Gideons are allowed to go. He wanted everyone to have a Bible and come to know Christ as Savior. He loved to visit pastors in Warren County to acquaint them with the Gideon ministry and to encourage them in their work for the Lord.

Bob and Ann bought a fifth wheel in the mid nineties and made long trips all over the U.S. and Canada. When it got too hard to take the camper, he sold it and bought a home in Eustis, FL, where they spent about five months each years.

He was preceded in death by his former wife, Eva Combs; son Kevin Scott Amburgy; mother Edna Brandenburg; parents Cortous and Mattie Amburgy; grandparents Frank and Cressie Brandenburg and Robert and Callie Amburgy; sister Jo Ann Ellis; and niece Jenifer Reese. He is survived by his wife, Anna Amburgy; daughter and son-in-law Kimberly and Bob Borders; grandchildren Robert Michael (Christine) Borders, Kyla Ann Borders (her special friend Gerald), Lauren Angelina Unser, Kristin Marie (Jorie) Johnson, and Ema Grace Hollett; sister-in-law Ruby Bunch; and many nieces and nephews.

“ I have know Bob as my barber, as my broker (work in real estate for Bob 25 years plus), buddy and fellow Christian. I just had lunch with Bob and Ann in Florida a few months ago and remembered how good they both looked.

“ Bob was a super person to know. I had the opportunity to have some transactions with him in real estate. I worked for a different company but always felt that we had the same principles in doing business. He was so cooperative. I knew he was a christian. My condolence goes to his wife and the family. May God give you peace in time and you will remember all the good times you enjoyed together.

“ We were privileged to serve the Lebanon Church of God from 1965 to 1978. Bob, Eva, Scott and Kim attended that church. Ann also attended that church, and we were blessed to have her. They were the kind of members who cared deeply for the pastor and they became dear friends. Bob was a Christian gentlemen who had integrity. He will be greatly missed. Our prayer is that God will comfort Ann, Kim and the entire family in a very special and personal manner. Love and prayers. James D. and Rebecca Jenkins
