

Sandra S. Brown

February 12, 1942 - July 25, 2019

BROWN, Sandra Sue, age 77, of Waynesville, Ohio, entered into Heaven's Gates on Thursday, July 25, 2019. Sandy was welcomed home by her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, along with many family members and friends who were there celebrating her arrival. She is preceded in death by her parents, seven brothers, and one sister.

Sandy was born February 12, 1942 to Herschel and Mamyie (Arthur) Dillinger in Jackson, Ohio. On September 30, 1961, she married Fred Brown of Memphis, Tennessee, and was blessed with nearly fifty-eight years of marriage.

She enjoyed being a homemaker for her husband and two daughters. For over thirty-five years, she was active at the Xenia Church of God as the pianist, and involved in their Women's Ministries. For the last twenty-seven years, she has enjoyed attending Solid Rock Church in Lebanon, where she loved the preaching, worship and establishing a group of close friendships.

Sandy loved to serve others, whether cooking and dropping off meals, baking her famous carrot cake for special occasions, or visiting the hospital. She enjoyed traveling, playing games with her friends, and being involved in the lives of her grandkids and great-grandkids. Those who were close to Sandy knew she never met a stranger.

She is survived by her loving husband, Fred, and two daughters, Janell (Rob) Duley of Waynesville, Ohio and Jill (Ben) Hodges of West Chester, Ohio; six grandchildren, Brandon and Kyle Duley, Ellen, Connor, Maxwell and John Ryan Hodges; two great-grandchildren, Taylor and Madison Duley; sister Naomi Finlay of Xenia, Ohio; "honorary daughter" Regina Ellis, and numerous nieces and nephews. “ Sandy and Fred were my mom's neighbor on Spring Street in Xenia. I am saddened by her death. Not only was she a great neighbor to my mom, Catherine Kline, but Sandy helped me when my daughters and I were visiting, December 1988. She went to the hospital with my daughter Caitlyn and I when Caitlyn was having a very bad attack of croup. Sandy was very open and happy about her faith. I am sure she enjoyed all of her grandchildren.

“ Sandy was an incredible lady that I was blessed to have know in my life. She made me laugh once when she said “the music is so loud that I had to get earplugs and then showed them to me”. She will be missed and I have a good feeling that earplugs are not needed in paradise. I will see you again!

“ I was privileged to have know Sandy and friends in the early seventies when I first meet the Lord. We had coffee every week after our ladies meetings and fellowship. We have laughed and prayed and sang together. Some of my fondest memories go back the Xenia Church of God.
Since we were new to the church we watched Janell, Jill, and Dotty’ s kids, Debbie, Tammy and Bobby, along with Glory Moore and maybe a few more, especially when they had sickness or death in the family. The kids were so much fun. Spent at lot of the weekends playing games as our kids played. When we moved back to Lexington she would call us, on their way to Florida or Tennessee, so she could here Jama talk on the recorder or hear her southern, (hillbilly),message.
Through the years we just fellowshipped through Christmas cards, and have kept in touch through Facebook especially with Janell and Jill. Which I have always loved and admired how Sandy and Fred were such a loving and fun family and passed it onto their children and grandchildren and the great grandchildren. Family was everything to Fred and Sandy. My heart goes out to the whole family and friends, but she left great and wonderful happy memories, never a cruel word. Thank God for that privilege of knowing Sandy and family.

Love and prayers to you all,

“ So thankful I had the honor of meeting you Sandra. I so well remember when you, your wonderful daughters and I went together to see Chonda Pierce. A very delightful evening with you. I know you are now healed and someday I will see you in the Land of Peace and Rest.

Janell and family, Jill and family I pray you all feel the comforting power of the Holy Spirit as you face this life remembering good times as you feel the absence of someone so precious. Love and Prayers, Wandalee Balzano

“ I will never forget our good times times at some of the First Sunday of May at Bolivar, TN at Brown family reunions. Because of distance our time was limited but as one of my brothers would say, “When we get to heaven we’ll have forever to worship our Savior and with family and lived ones - no time restraints. What a day that will be! I loved Sandy and was so blessed she was my Sister-in-the Lord. I know you will miss her but we have that wonderful Hope and your sweet memories are a treasure. God bless your precious family. Prayers and love to each of you.

“ Sandy was my second mom growing up! She never seemed to mind me being around. Janell and Jill were truly blessed. Something I will never forget is how I always looked forward to her hamburgers! Fried in a skillet, but was the best tasting burger I ever had!!! I ask her one day why they were so good and she said ...just pepper.. . I know she will be missed by all... But she loved the Lord! And we will see her again one day! Love you Fred, Janell and Jill and family.

“ We will always remember her wonderful sense of humor. Loved to hear her funny stories about things that happened at church some years ago and some family stories as well. Will miss this so much. She loved to laugh and have others laugh too. I will miss her and all the good times we shared. “Brownie “ what an impact you made on so many people’s lives.
